 The Fatima Prayer

O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell, and lead all souls to heaven, especially those in most need of Thy mercy.

Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help or sought thine intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

For all our Dearly Beloved Departed

The names of those who have recently passed from this life to the next will remain on the bulletin necrology for nine weeks. They will then be transferred to the permanent parish necrology, also known as the Book of the Dead. Mass Intentions for loved ones after this time will be printed the week that the Holy Mass is scheduled.

Lord Jesus, remember especially in loving mercy:

Sybil Casey, Thad Morrison, Judith Nolan, Geri Manning, Deacon Steve Bek, Anthoniamma Balappa, Fr. Leo Herbert, Girard Charles St. Germaine, Fr. Terry Kane, Virginia Chahrouri, Richard Cuervo, Evelyn McDermott, and all those who have gone before us.

Questions Exposing the Hypocrisy of the Pro-Abortion Lobby

- Why is it the very people who say the government should stay out of abortion are the same ones who want the government to pay for abortions? Fact: Planned Parenthood makes multiple millions of dollars each year, yet it remains a significant beneficiary of our tax dollars through federal funding.
- If outlawing abortion violates a woman's right to privacy, don't laws outlawing child abuse, prostitution, pornography, drug use, etc., also violate this right?
- Abortion advocates say they are in the business to help women. Other than offering to terminate the lives of their children, what help do you offer? Fact: Pregnancy Resource Centers offer free pre-natal care, free room and board during pregnancy, help with adoption and post-abortion counseling.
- If we use the absence of brain waves and a heartbeat to determine when a person's life has ended, why shouldn't we use the presence of brain waves and a heartbeat to determine when a person's life begins?
- Why is it that abortion advocates say they want women to have all their options, but they then fight so hard against laws requiring totally informed consent?
- Why do abortion advocates also fight against teaching school children how to abstain from dangerous sexual activity outside marriage?
- Why do abortion advocates also fight against laws that require parents to be informed about, or give consent for, their minor daughters' abortions? Fact: Planned Parenthood puts minors on birth control and carries out abortions without parents' knowledge or involvement.
- Should a woman be allowed to have an abortion for absolutely any reason, such as sex selection, selective reduction, or job promotion? If so, are there any reasons at all when abortion advocates believe that abortion would be unacceptable? Fact: Planned Parenthood is the largest abortion chain in America and has been responsible for the death of millions of innocent children at its facilities. It aborts hundreds of unborn babies daily.

Change of Seasons

Summer weather is upon us, and with it, the season of shorts and all types of seasonal clothing. Please remember that we must always be respectful of the sanctity within God's house. Our clothing should reflect this as well. When we come to Church, we should be dressed appropriately as we will be in the presence of the Lord. Please refrain from wearing shorts, strapless dresses or strapless tops. Bare shoulders should be covered with a sweater or shawl. Be aware that the thermostat in the Church will be set at 69° for the warm months.

Congratulations from the Knights of Columbus:

Sunday June 18
Gospel Reading

John 6:51-58

Jesus says, "I am the living bread."

This Sunday we celebrate a second solemnity during this period of Ordinary Time in the liturgical calendar. Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. This day was once called Corpus Christi, which is Latin for "Body of Christ." In the revised Lectionary the name for this day is expanded to reflect more completely our Eucharistic theology.

Today's Gospel is taken from the Gospel according to John. The reading is part of a discourse between Jesus and a crowd of Jews. The discourse comes shortly after the miracle of Jesus' multiplication of the loaves and fishes. In John's Gospel, miracles such as this are identified as "signs" through which people come to believe that Jesus is the Son of God. These signs are followed by dialogue, or discourse that interprets and explains the miracle. In John's Gospel, Jesus' multiplication of the loaves is said to have occurred near Passover, thus linking it to the Exodus story and God's saving action toward the Israelites.

Having seen Jesus multiply the loaves and fishes, the crowd pursues him, perhaps seeking more food but also looking for another sign. Jesus tells the crowd that he is the bread of life. He explains that just as God gave the Israelites manna to sustain them in the desert, so now God has sent new manna that will give eternal life. It is in this context that Jesus repeats those words in today's Gospel and tells them again that he is the living bread that came down from heaven.

Jesus' words are not well understood by the crowd; they argue that Jesus is not from heaven but born of Mary and Joseph. The crowd also has trouble understanding how Jesus could give them his flesh to eat. Jesus tells them that when they eat his flesh and drink his blood, they will remain forever connected to him. These are difficult words, but they are important because they seek to show us our intimate connection with Jesus.

This is the mystery that is at the heart of our Eucharistic theology. In the elements of bread and wine, Jesus' Body and Blood are truly present. When we share in the Body and Blood of Christ, Jesus himself comes to dwell within us. This communion with the Lord makes us one body, brings us eternal life, and sends us forth to be Christ's Body in the world.

Catechism Corner - from the Catechism of St. Pius X - Man

40 Q. Were these gifts (innocence, sanctifying grace, integrity, immortality, immunity from pain & sorrow, etc.) due to man?

A. These gifts were in no way due to man, but were absolutely gratuitous and supernatural; and hence, when Adam disobeyed the divine command, God could without any injustice deprive both Adam and his posterity of them.

41 Q. Is this sin proper to Adam alone?

A. This sin is not Adam's sin alone, but it is also our sin, though in a different sense. It is Adam's sin because he committed it by an act of his will, and hence in him it was a personal sin. It is our sin also because Adam, having committed it in his capacity as the head and source of the human race, it was transmitted by natural generation to all his descendants: and hence in us it is original sin.

42 Q. How is it possible for original sin to be transmitted to all men?

A. Original sin is transmitted to all men because God, having conferred sanctifying grace and other supernatural gifts on the human race in Adam, on the condition that Adam should not disobey Him; and Adam having disobeyed, as head and father of the human race, rendered human nature rebellious against God. And hence, human nature is transmitted to all the descendants of Adam in a state of rebellion against God, and deprived of divine grace and other gifts.
