 The Fatima Prayer

O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell, and lead all souls to heaven, especially those in most need of Thy mercy.

Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help or sought thine intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

For all our Dearly Beloved Departed

The names of those who have recently passed from this life to the next will remain on the bulletin necrology for nine weeks. They will then be transferred to the permanent parish necrology, also known as the Book of the Dead. Mass Intentions for loved ones after this time will be printed the week that the Holy Mass is scheduled.

Lord Jesus, remember especially in loving mercy:

Daniel and Emilia Gallego, Anne Palcak, Erin McCann, Deacon Steve Bek, Anthoniamma Balappa, Fr. Leo Herbert, Girard Charles St. Germaine, Fr. Terry Kane, Virginia Chahrouri, Richard Cuervo, Evelyn McDermott, and all those who have gone before us.

Which Is An Accurate Description: "Pro-life" or "Pro-Choice"?

"Pro-life" is an accurate description because proponents of this position wish to preserve all life, including the life of the most defenseless in our society, the unborn baby.

"Pro-choice" is misleading because proponents of this position never offer a choice to the unborn baby and frequently never consult the baby's father.

It may be the "choice" of the mother who in many instances is feeling desperate and not properly informed. It may also be the business "choice" of the for-profit abortion clinic and the fee-for-service abortionist.

However, "pro-death" would be a more accurate description for the "pro-choice" position because an abortion always results in the death of an unborn baby.

In an attempt to make abortion more palatable and acceptable, abortion proponents speak of and defend what they refer to as "reproductive rights". Again, such terminology is deliberately misleading because an abortion has nothing to do with reproduction. In fact an abortion is the exact opposite of reproduction. Furthermore, the unborn baby is stripped of all "rights", so again, the description is blatantly inappropriate.

"Every child not allowed to be born, but unjustly condemned to be aborted, has the face of Jesus Christ, the Lord's face . . . Life is always, in all its phases and at any age, sacred . . ."

Pope Francis

Summer weather is upon us, and with it, the season of shorts and all types of seasonal clothing. Please remember that we must always be respectful of the sanctity within God's house. Our clothing should reflect this as well. When we come to Church, we should be dressed appropriately as we will be in the presence of the Lord. Please refrain from wearing shorts, strapless dresses or strapless tops. Bare shoulders should be covered with a sweater or shawl. Be aware that the thermostat in the Church will be set at 69° for the warm months.

Sunday July 9
Gospel Reading

Matthew 11:25-30

Jesus outlines the costs and rewards of discipleship.

Today's reading from Matthew's Gospel comes after a discourse in which Jesus reproaches people who have witnessed his mighty deeds yet still lack belief. In this context, today's Gospel explains the reason for this unbelief and reveals what is necessary for faith. Today's Gospel also continues to enhance our understanding of discipleship as last week's Gospel did. Jesus first prays in thanksgiving to God who has made himself known to Jesus' disciples. He praises God who has made himself known to the "little ones" and not to the wise and learned. As in other recent readings from Matthew's Gospel, a contrast is made here between the unbelieving Pharisees, who are wise and learned, and the faithful disciples, tax collectors, and sinners with whom Jesus keeps company.

The second part of this reading calls to our attention the unity between the Father and the Son. God has made himself known through Jesus, and in knowing Jesus, we come to know the Father. In Jesus' life and in his person, God reveals himself to us.

In the concluding sentences of today's Gospel, Jesus' teaching is again contrasted to the teaching of the Pharisees. This common theme of Matthew's Gospel probably reflects tension that existed between Jesus and the Pharisees and between the Pharisees and the community of Christians for whom Matthew wrote. Pharisaic Judaism became the predominant form of Judaism after the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem about 70 A.D. Here that tension is expressed as alternative paths of holiness. The careful observance of the Mosaic law taught by the Pharisees could be experienced by some as difficult and burdensome. In contrast, Jesus' way of holiness is presented as uncomplicated and even restful.

Pope Francis' July Prayer Intention

Lapsed Christians – That our brothers and sisters who have strayed from the faith, through our prayer and witness to the gospel, may rediscover the merciful closeness of the Lord and the beauty of Christian life.

Help Us Keep Children Safe!

It has come to our attention that some parents are allowing their children to play in the nursery and other places in the church building as well as on the playground without parental supervision. The well being and safety of every child of God is of the utmost concern. Please know that it is against Archdiocesan policy to leave any child unattended on church property. If a ministry or organization would like to provide childcare for an activity, two Safe Environment or Virtus trained and approved volunteers must be present when the parent is not.

Please help us protect our young people by making every effort to comply with this policy.

Catechism Corner - from the Catechism of St. Pius X - The Second Article of the Creed

4 Q. Why is Jesus Christ called our Lord?

A. Jesus Christ is called our Lord, because, not only did He as God, together with the Father and the Holy Ghost, create us; but He has also as God and Man redeemed us.

5 Q. Why is the Son of God, made man, called Jesus?

A. The Son of God, made man, is called Jesus, that is to say, Saviour, because He has saved us from the eternal death merited by our sins.

6 Q. Who gave the name of Jesus to the Son of God, made man?

A. The Eternal Father Himself, through the Archangel Gabriel, gave the name of Jesus to the Son of God made man, at the moment when the Archangel announced to the Blessed Virgin the mystery of the Incarnation.
